CARRIAGE DRIVING

DK Carriage Horses, Woolsthorpe by Belvoir, near Grantham

☎ 01949 358695/ 07862260229

➤ www.dkcarriagehorses.co.uk

Try a spin around the quiet lanes near Belvoir Castle for a really special treat. Delightful countryside looks even better from behind a pair of Danny and Sarah Kendle's Hungarian greys or their two spectacular black Gelderlander carriage stunners. DK Carriage Horses supplies horse-drawn carriages for weddings, funerals and special occasions, providing a bespoke service for all occasions, plus carriage driving training and teaching for all abilities.

Danny and Sarah are also happy to take people out for a taster drive or lay on a special treat with some bubbly! Former Head Coachman of the Household Cavalry Regiment, Danny has more than 14 years' professional coach and carriage driving experience.

Competing at both national and international level, he has undertaken a wide and varied catalogue of carriage driving work from military parades, weddings, funerals, film and commercial work to charity coaching marathons over large swathes of the UK - all to the highest military standards of tradition, etiquette and style.

TOP SHOWJUMPING

Arena UK Limited, Allington Lane, Allington, Grantham, NG32 2EF

➤ www.arenauk.com

Arena UK is one of the UK's top equestrian centre, sited near Grantham, directly accessible from the A1 just north of Grantham and nestling in over 500 acres with fully licensed bar and restaurant.

It plays host to many British Show Jumping Association regional and national championships, showing and dressage. September's Annual Festival of Show Jumping (19 - 25) attracts over 1500 competitors from all over the UK plus top international competitors and offers a prize fund of over £175,000. The Grand Prix with a first prize of £20,000 is the highest first prize currently available in Great Britain, with a total prize fund of £60,000.

HORSE TRIALS

For horse trials enthusiasts September means only one thing: The Land Rover Burghley Horse Trials at Stamford. As one of the world's top events, Burghley stages two days of dressage, followed by Saturday's exciting cross country across beautiful parkland and a final day's show jumping. Trade stands are a draw in themselves, with a specialist food area amidst some 600-plus retail outlets.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Why not take a lovely hack out or book a lesson for the kids? South Kesteven and surrounding has some excellent riding schools in the countryside, offering a safe environment for all levels of riding.

The Paddocks Riding Centre

This small friendly yard to the north west of Grantham offers a personalised equestrian experience for the adult rider on schoolmaster horses. Learn to ride, return to riding, take group lessons, private lessons or a safe hack out on grass margins.

A Racewood trot simulator, belonging to Kesteven Rideability RDA group, is particularly useful for learners to acquire the basics of rising trot in a safe, controlled situation

Uffington Riding Stables

Specialists in children's riding lessons, with group or private lessons available for children from three years old. The stables also cater for adults of all abilities and have a range of horses and ponies available to suit all levels of riders. It's the perfect place to learn to ride, or even revisit a childhood hobby as an adult.

In addition to private and group lessons, hacks in the local countryside can be organised after an initial assessment of riding ability.

Elms Farm, Caythorpe

Look no further for quality, fun and enthusiastic riding lessons for all capabilities of rider.

Elms Farm has a large selection of quality riding school ponies and horses and there are never more than four in a group lesson. Children over five only. For those inevitable rainy days there is access to the indoor school, meaning lessons go ahead all year round. It also caters for birthday parties and all ponies are available to hire on competition days, so even if you do not own a horse or pony you are still able to compete! It's also fortunate to have brilliant local hacking. Caythorpe is on the A607 between Grantham and Lincoln (close to the polo at Leadenham!)

FANCY A CHUKKA?

📍 Leadenham Polo Club, The Manor, 1 Church End, Fulbeck Road, Leadenham, LN5 0PX

📞 01400 318006

🌐 www.leadenhampoloclub.com

Leadenham Polo Club opened in 2007 with the aim of providing quality facilities and ponies to those both looking to take up the sport from scratch and also for those who have been playing for many years. The club is located south of Lincoln on the A607.

It has a purpose-built laser levelled field that has won the reputation of being amongst the finest in the country. Its ponies, which were brought over from Argentina both for teaching and competitive polo, are also highly sought after throughout the polo community.

There is an on-site clubhouse with overnight facilities which welcomes guests from all over the UK. Leadenham teaches riding for polo up to chukka standard and beyond. Lessons are ideal for those wishing to learn the game and make regular progression but only have a short space of free time.

VISIT A HORSE CHARITY

📍 Bransby Horses, Bransby, Lincoln LN1 2PH

📞 01427 788464

🌐 www.bransbyhorses.co.uk

Bransby Horses is one of the UK's largest horse charities and offers not only a safe haven for horses, ponies and donkeys but also a fantastic day out for visitors. Founded in 1968 in Bransby, nine miles north of Lincoln, the centre rescues, rehabilitates, re-homes or acts as a retirement centre for horses, ponies, donkeys and mules. It also runs a rescue centre in Herefordshire. Visitors can expect to see around 300 four-legged residents and the new Bransby Visitor and Education Centre is open to the public every day from 10am – 4pm. The Horses' Feedroom Cafe has delicious food and there is a gift shop. Bransby is entirely reliant on public donations. Entry and parking is free
