Delve into thousands of years of history and explore South Kesteven's rich heritage by following this self-guided trail.

Sitting at the southwest corner of Lincolnshire, South Kesteven is bursting with history and heritage, from famous castles and historic houses, to ancient inns and walled gardens.

In South Kesteven, you can stand in the footsteps of Isaac Newton's time in Woolsthorpe, by visiting Woolsthorpe Manor; discover Burghley House, built as a country home for the dynasty that William Cecil founded; explore Belvoir Castle, the ancestral home of the Duke of Rutland, where the family have lived in an unbroken line for almost a thousand years; and lots more. Follow this self-guided trail to discover some of the finest historical and heritage sites.

In the local area, you'll also find fantastic places to stay, picturesque villages, wonderful walking and cycling trails, visitor attractions for all ages and the fine market towns of Grantham, Bourne, Market Deeping and Stamford.
